ROLL OF HONOR POLICEMAN BADLY INJURED BY RUNAWAY

O'Brien, After Being Dragged Six Blocks, Reported at Station and Fell in Faint-Taken to the Hospital.

Policeman Christopher O'Brien, who unted as he was reporting to his serreant that he had stopped a runaway orse attached to a coupe after he was dragged for more than six blocks, is in ch a serious condition at the Harlem Hospital to-day that when Joseph Garvis, the driver, was arraigned in the Harlem Police Court on a charge of minal negligence in leaving the horse hitched and without a bit in the anial's mouth, the case was postponed until Monday. It is doubtfut if O'Brien will be able to appear even then. The horse was left under the New York Central elevated structure at Park venue and One Hundred and Twenty-Afth street by Garvis, who went into a nearby store. The bit had been removed

ACCUSED BY WOMAN IN SUIT-CASE DEATH

BOSTON, Diec. L.—Testimony that then any of the patients died he cut up their bodies, was offered to-day by Mrs. W. Harrison Stanford, of Philadelphia, who was called by the defence in the trial of Dr. Percy D. Mo-Leed in connection with the death of Susanna Geary, the Cambridge chorus

Mrs. Stanford declared that Hunt, who has pleaded guilty in the phasent case as accessors, was known in Philadelphia as "Dr. Roberts," and that he had lived in her mother's house for searly a year.

The witness identified a picture of Mrs. Mary S. Dean, who is wanted as the principal in the Geary case, as that of the woman who had posed at the wife of Hunt in Philadelphia when the latter was known as Dr. Richards.

Dr. McLeod, the defendant taking the stand in his own behalf, made a sweeping denial of the charges against hâm. He said that on the morning of Sept.

Dr. McLeod, the defendant taking the stand in his own behalf, made a sweeping denial of the charges against him. He said that on the morning of Sept. 14 he was called to the house on Winthiop street, Hoxbury, occupied by a women who he was later told was Mrs. Dean, to examine a young women He bean, to examine a young woman. He told Mrs. Dean that an immediate operation was necessary to save the little girl's life. Complying with the request of Mrs. Dean he called Dr. Pettee by telephone and secured his assistance. The operation was performed upon the girl to save her life, he said.

ansarby store. The bit had been removed to allow the horse to eat. The horse took fright at a train and ran through One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street. When near Fifth avenue, Policeman O'Brien grabbed the reins. He pulled with all his strength, but as the bit was out this had little effect and he was dragged along Fifth avenue to Mt. Morris Park West, six blocks, before the horse was stopped.

O'Brien them drove to the station-bouse in East One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street. He tied the horse outside and went in to report to Sergt. Frank. He was covered with blood and dust and his clothes were in rags.

He managed to salute and then fell amoonscicous before the desk.

When taken to the Hariem Hospital R was found he was suffering, not only from many bruises and cuts, but from an injury to the spine and possible concussion of the brain. He was still in a semi-conscious state to-day.

Foliceman Christopher C. O'Brien, who kyes at No. 47 East One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, is one of the few man in the department who have not only received a medal, but is also on the roll of nonor.
